

KNEISEL HALL CHAMBER MUSIC SCHOOL AND FESTIVAL

Application for Admission
Master Class April 17, 2010 Application
Program for Maine Students

Deadline: March 17, 2010!!!!

Dear Music Students and Teachers:

Kneisel Hall is presenting its first program of 2010 for Maine music students – a chamber music master class. Boston based violist Scott Woolweaver* is the master for the class, Saturday, April 17 in Bangor at Husson College's new Gracie Hall 1:00 – 4:00 p.m. String and piano duos, trios, quartets and quintets are encouraged to apply.

Groups who perform will receive musical and technical coaching, which is intended as much for the audience's enhanced appreciation of the music as for the performers' education. The class is open to the public and there is no charge – families, friends and teachers are welcome and encouraged to attend.

In addition, video students from Husson College will use Digital Video to tape the performances and will play back portions of the video to view on a large screen. And the screening will provide immediate feedback. This is a terrific opportunity to SEE what one actually looks like in performance!

Please complete the application below BY MARCH 17 and send with a performance fee of $25.00 to Kneisel Hall (PO Box 648, Blue Hill, ME 04614). All ensembles should prepare their works with a teacher/coach and practice, practice, practice! If I am familiar with your playing, it will not be necessary to prepare a CD; otherwise, you must send one along with your application. MAIL TO: MAIL TO: Kneisel Hall (Program for Maine Students) PO Box 648, Blue Hill, ME 04614 Please call or email me if you have any questions at all.
