

Job Opening: Residence Life Manager (seasonal; 2 positions open)

Kneisel Hall Chamber Music School and Festival is a premier summer music festival located in Blue Hill, Maine. Each summer, Kneisel Hall offers public concerts, residential artist training programs for advanced musicians, as well as day camps for younger students. Kneisel Hall's flagship program, the Young Artist Chamber Music Program, attracts today's most gifted young professional artists who come to Kneisel Hall for seven weeks to immerse in chamber music study and artistic development.

Kneisel Hall is seeking two Residence Life Managers who will be responsible for creating and promoting a supportive, inclusive, safe, and healthy campus environment for Kneisel Hall Young Artists. Residence Life Managers live on campus with Young Artists and are on-call around the clock for the duration of the contract period. Private single room (with private bath) and meals are provided. This is a seasonal position from mid-June to mid-August each year.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Facilitate student arrivals, orientation, and departures, managing the dorm check-in and check-out procedures, leading parts of orientation meetings and other informational sessions
- Assist students with questions and issues concerning daily campus life
- Collect, distribute, and relay information between students and the Artistic Director and/or the Executive Director; and generally serve as a liaison between students and staff
- Promote a responsible living-learning atmosphere in the dorms by exemplifying model behavior
- Ensure that all Kneisel Hall policies and rules are followed
- Drive students to off-site activities and essential errands when needed; provide pick-up/drop-off service for guest artists as necessary
- Respond to and handle emergency situations; direct students on emergency protocols as necessary
- Be available on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week for the duration of the Young Artist Program (two Residence Life Managers coordinate an on-call rotation)
- Conduct "spot checks" of dorms and common rooms as needed
- Assist with concert operations, ticketing, and office tasks as needed
- Assist with housekeeping and general care of the campus
- Other duties as assigned

QUALIFICATIONS

- 21 years of age or older
- At least 1 year of experience supervising students, working as a resident assistant or similar
- Background in music performance or study is a plus but not required
- Excellent interpersonal skills to work well with diverse body of students, faculty, and staff
- Ability to enforce clear expectations while building open and professional relationships
- Good judgement, strong problem-solving skills, and ability to roll with the punches
- Ability to follow direction while taking full charge of given tasks from start to finish
- Ability to handle multiple competing tasks
- Strong computer skills
- A valid U.S. driver's license and ability to drive a passenger van
